

From Carolyn Rae: a pumpkin poem - We read the poem and learned the song about the 5 little pumpkins. The poem was printed out and the children made the gate from popsicle sticks and cut and decorated their own 5 pumpkins. My kiddies are Kindergarten.

From Marianne in Penticton: The children simply drew a ghost with a white glue bottle, then put a short length of white wool on top of the glue. We used reinforcements for eyes and mouth, and white chalk or pastel to write "boo". This is Kindergarten.

From Shannon Malahais: The pumpkin patch

From Tamara Alves

Turkeys for Thanksgiving

Pumpkins and bats

Owls for Halloween

From Tamara - autumn trees... the trunk is the arm and the branches the hand.

From Karima Karmali: I used newspaper to make ghosts and then had kids brainstorm words to describe ghosts and they wrote the words on the lines.
Poem is:

Ghosts!
I like ghosts.
----- ghosts,
----- ghosts,
----- ghosts,
Oooooooooooh!
I like ghosts!

More from Bev Siudut - Two favourite Halloween ideas

From Cindy Budd, Sandowne Elementary in Campbell River: The Pumpkin Patch.....Pencil drawing, colour with crayon, black wash

More Halloween art from Cindy Budd:

And one more from Cindy: Pastel background, painted trees, glitter glue Cindy

From Tonya Purnell: An orange wash on white paper. Cut out pumpkin shape and use construction paper to cut out grass, eyes, nose, stem, teeth...

From Jeanette Dykstra These are my Grade 3 projects ( but they are not Fall projects).

One more from Jeannette:

And, from Marianne in Penticton - Kindergarten kids delight in two small deer in the school yard!

