

Remembrance Day

I'll wear a little poppy,
As red as red can be,
To show that I remember
Those who fought for me.

Little Poppy

Little poppy
Given to me,
Help me keep Canada
Safe and free.

Five Little Poppies

Five little poppies were swaying in the breeze.
The first one was shaded by some trees.
The second one said, "What's happening today?"
The third one said, "We remember soldiers this way!"
The fourth one said, "What did the soldiers do?"
The fifth one said, "They were brave for me and you!"
Hear the five little poppies say,
"November 11th is Remembrance Day!"

Remembrance Day

We wear a poppy
On Remembrance Day,
And at eleven
We stand and pray.
Wreaths are put
Upon a grave.
As we remember
Our soldiers brave.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, tho poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lieut.-Col. John McCrae

On Remembrance Day
Our flags will wave,
To honor those
Who were so brave.

They were called to serve,
They never asked why.
They fought for freedom for you and I.
Their families and friends
Were left behind.
Their goal was peace for all mankind.
Fighting for liberty
And justice for all.
Some lived to see it, but some did fall.
Each one risk their life,
So freedom could ring.
Thank you all for everything!

Remembrance Day

On Remembrance Day
We wear our poppies
(children point to their poppy)

On Remembrance Day
We see the old soldiers
proudly marching in the parade
(veterans march or stand and salute)

On Remembrance Day
We see people laying wreaths at the cenotaph
(child places wreath at podium)

On Remembrance Day
We think of the soldiers who died
(heads down)

On Remembrance Day
We think of the mothers who cried
(girls weep)

On Remembrance Day
We think of the people who were fighting to make the world a better place to live (globe and dove)

On Remembrance Day
We stand in silence (heads down)

On Remembrance Day
We remember

Teresa Williams

The Strangest Dream

Last night I had the strangest dream
I ever had before
I dreamed the world
Had all agreed
To put an end to war.

And the people in the streets below
Were dancing round and round
And swords and guns and uniforms
Were scattered on the ground.

Poppy

Poppy, we are but children small,
We are too little to do it all.

Children you may do your part.
Loving each other is how you start.
Play without fighting.
Share your games and toys.
Be kind and thoughtful,
To all girls and boys.
