

Primary Success
Publications

Copyright 2007
All Rights Reserved

Easter eggs,
Yellow and blue.

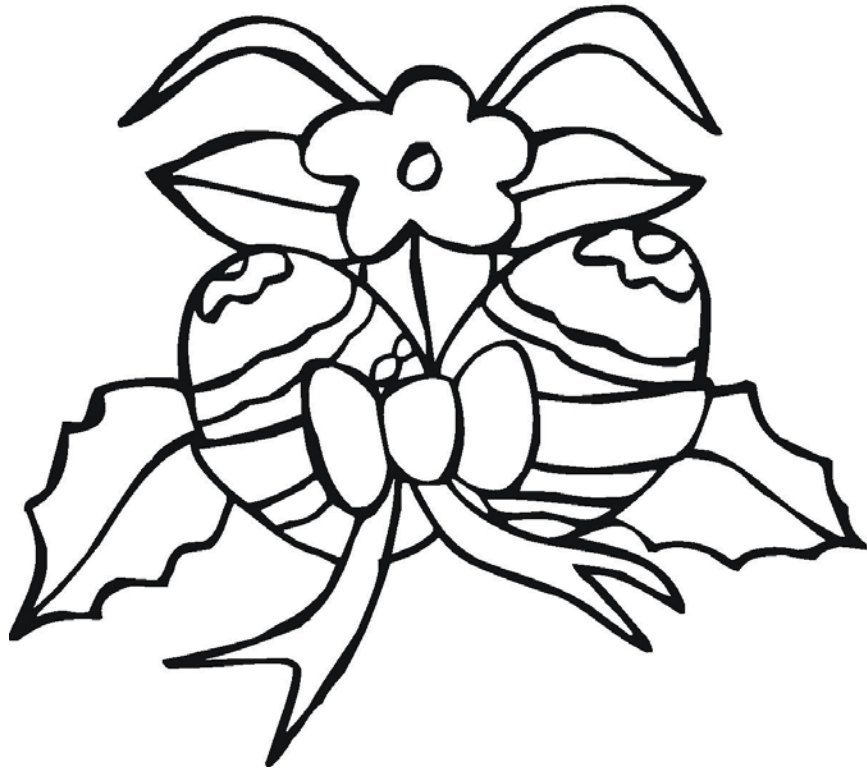

But...
Where, oh, where,
Is the Easter Bunny?

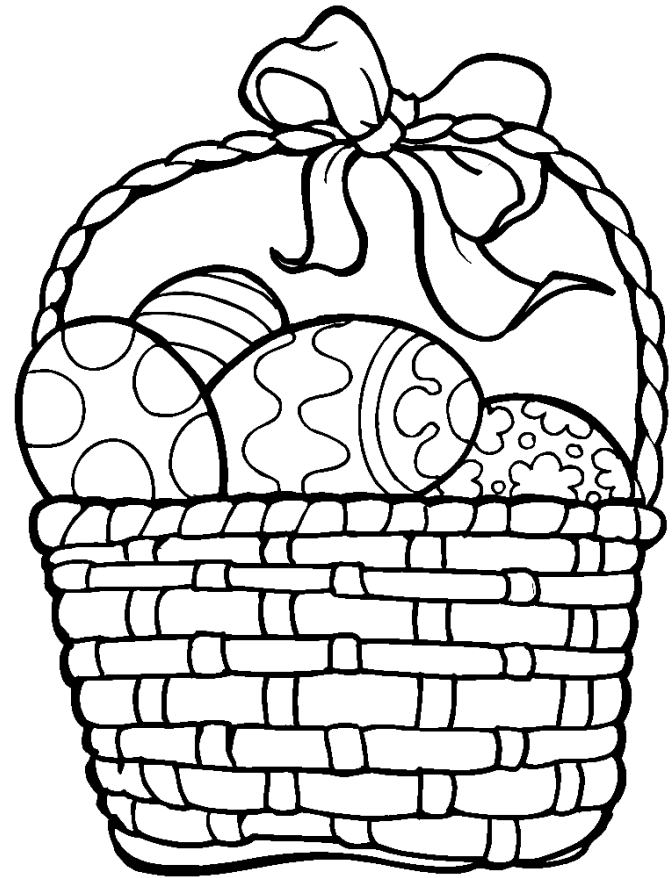

Easter eggs,
This one is funny,

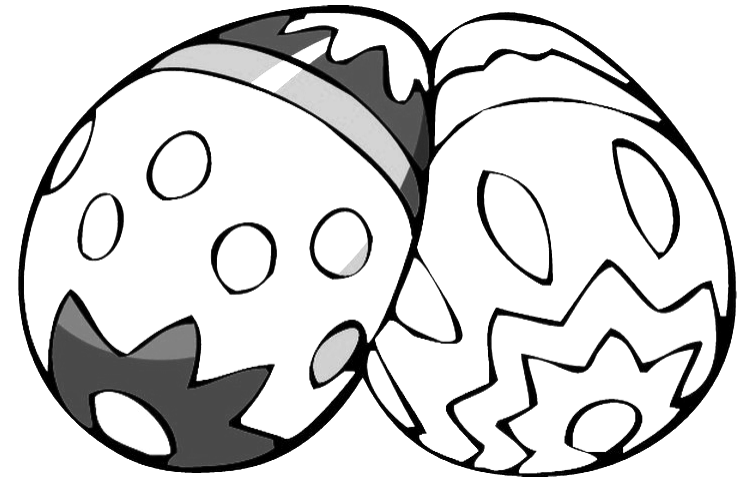

Easter eggs,
For me and you.

Easter eggs,
Nice and sweet,

Easter eggs,
A yummy treat.

Eggs at Easter

Eggs at Easter

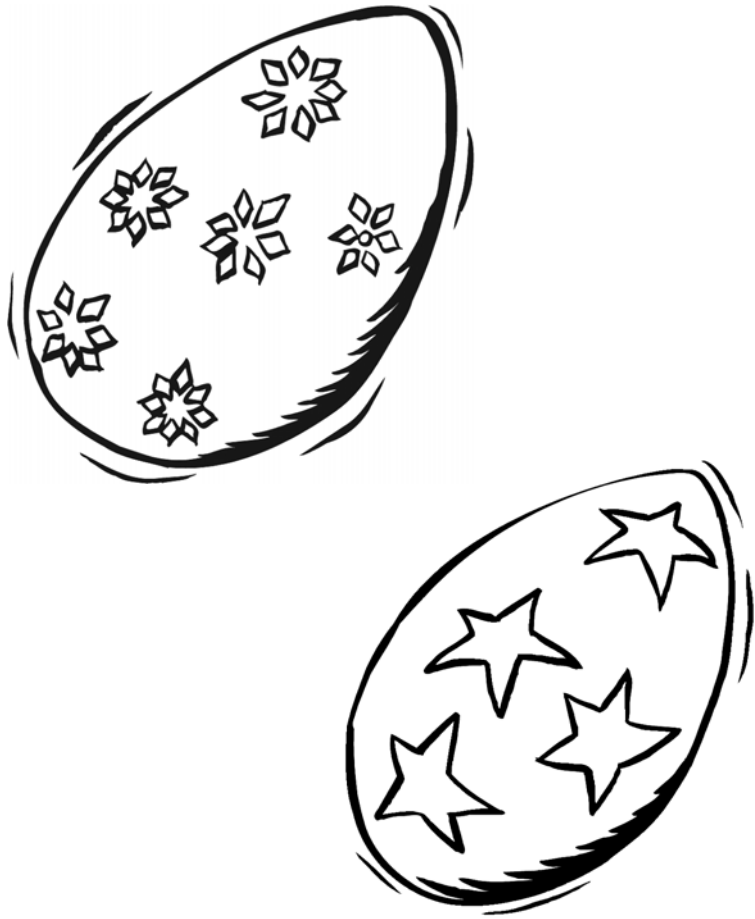

Copyright 2005
All Rights Reserved

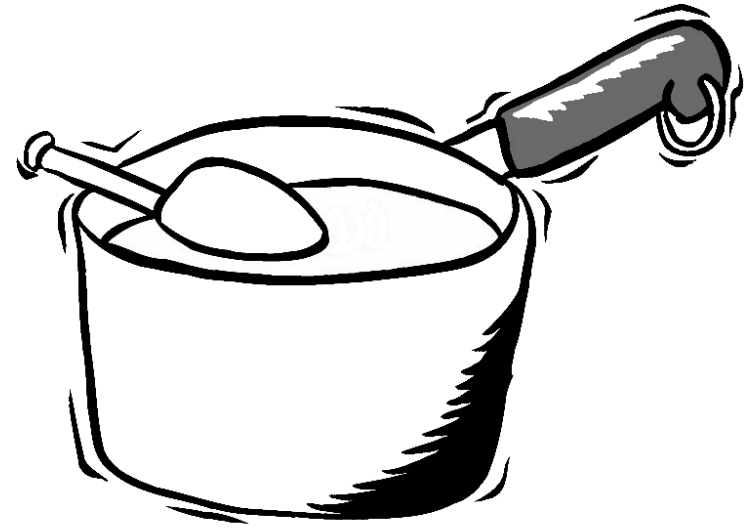

At Easter I colour
eggs with my Mom.

We put our eggs in a basket.
Happy Easter!

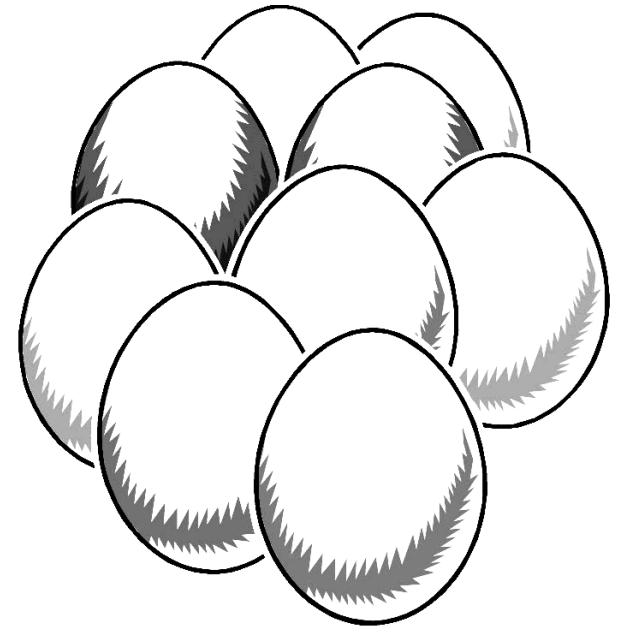

We draw pictures on
the eggs, too!

We put colours in
pots and dip the eggs.

I like pink, blue and yellow eggs.

Mom likes purple, green
and red eggs.

The Easter Hunt

The Easter Hunt
Written by Kelly Raine

Copyright 2005
All Rights Reserved

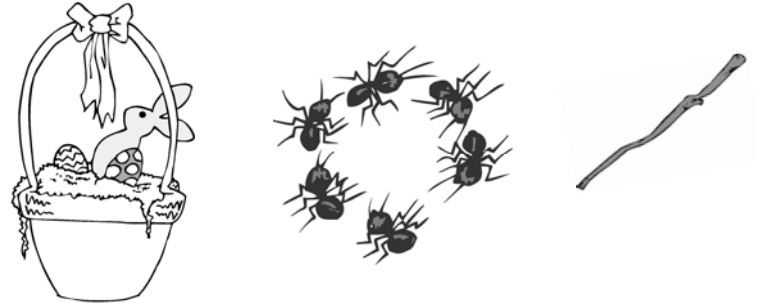

It was Easter morning. Megan and her brother jumped out of bed.

"Let's go!" yelled Megan.

"Let's go!" yelled Jake.

"We want to see what the Easter bunny hid for us in the yard!"

And out they went.

Mom and Dad came out of the house.

"What did the Easter bunny leave for you?" asked Dad.

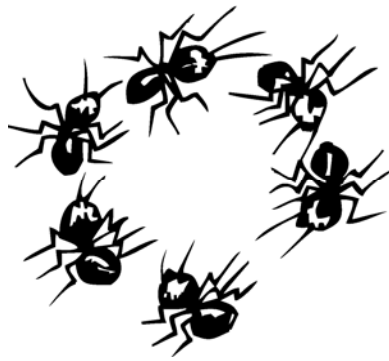

"Chocolate and candy eggs, two chocolate bunnies and jelly beans!" said Megan.

"Worms, a caterpillar, a stick and ants!" said Jake.

"I will share with you, Jake," said Megan. "I have lots of candy."

"Thanks!" said Jake. "I will share with you, Megan. I have lots of bugs and sticks."

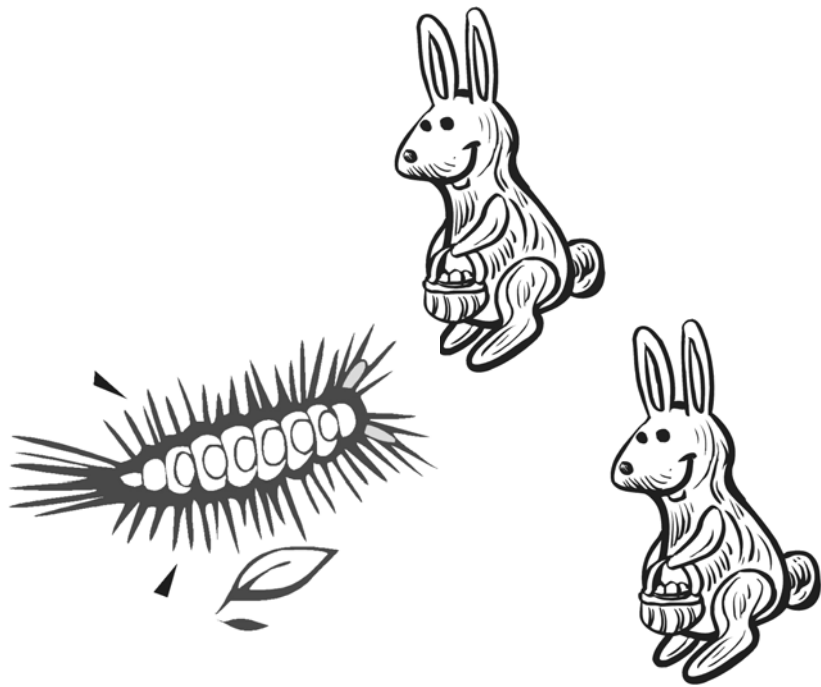

"No, thank you," said Megan. "Happy Easter!"

Megan looked in a flower pot.
"Little candy eggs!" she said.
"The little eggs are nice."
She put the little candy eggs in her basket.
"Ants!" said Jake "Ants are really nice."
He put the ants in his basket.

Megan looked and looked.
She looked under a rock.
"Look!" she said. "Look what I have!"
There were two big chocolate
eggs.
"I like chocolate eggs!" she said.
She put the eggs in her basket.
Jake looked and looked. He looked under a rock.
"Look what I have!" he said.
It was a big worm. "I like big worms!" he said. He put the big worm in his basket.

Megan ran to a tree.

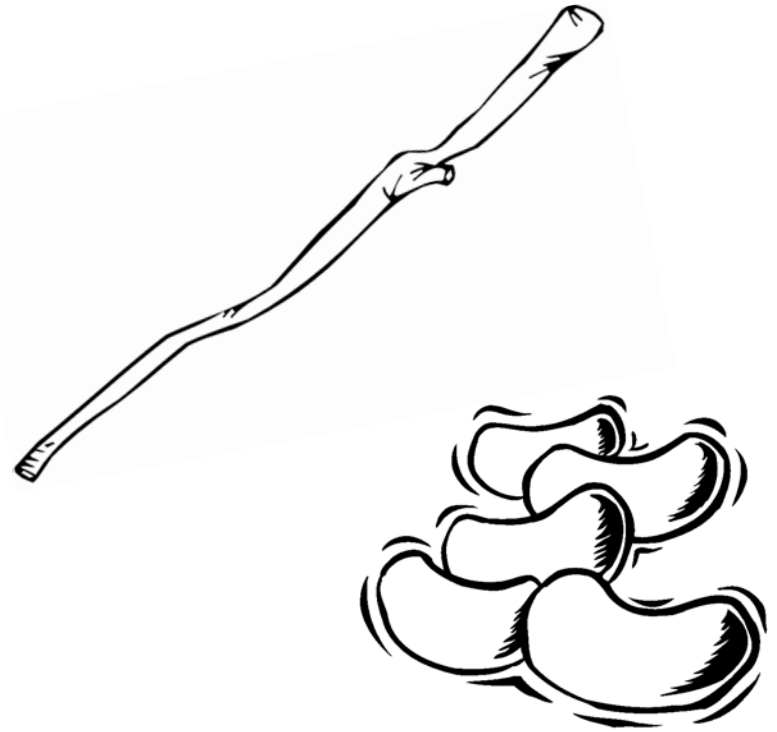

"Look what I have!" she said.

"Two chocolate bunnies. I like chocolate bunnies!"

Megan put the bunnies in her basket.

Jake ran to the tree. "Oh!" he said. "Look what I have! A caterpillar! I like caterpillars!"

Jake put the caterpillar in his basket.

Megan looked under a bush. "Jellybeans!" she said. "I like jellybeans!"

Into her basket went the jellybeans.

"A nice stick!" said Jake. "This is a good stick!"

The stick went into Jake's basket.