

Primary
Success
Publications

Spring is Here
By Kelly Raine

Copyright 2006
All Rights Reserved

Leprechaun, Leprechaun
Put on your green clothes.
It's St. Patrick's Day,
As everyone knows.

Leprechaun, leprechaun,
Hooray, hooray!
You've waited all year
For St. Patrick's Day!

Leprechaun, leprechaun,
What a band!
Irish music
Is really grand.

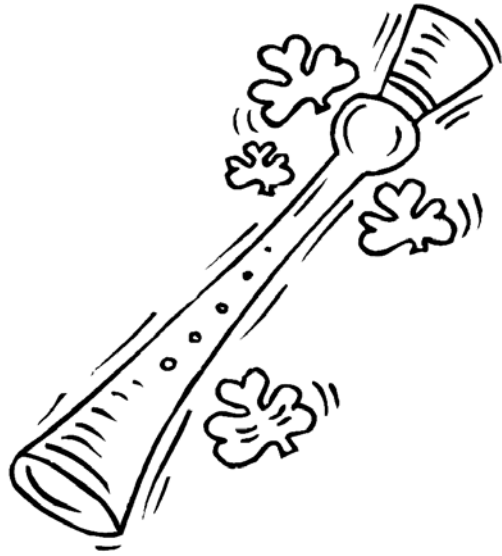

Leprechaun, Leprechaun
Put on your hat.
Find a green shamrock
Just like that.

Leprechaun, leprechaun,
Be quick and bold -
At the end of the rainbow
Is a pot of gold!

Leprechaun, leprechaun,
Kick up your heels!
With Irish music,
Dance jigs and reels.

Primary
Success
Publications

Copyright 2007
All Rights Reserved

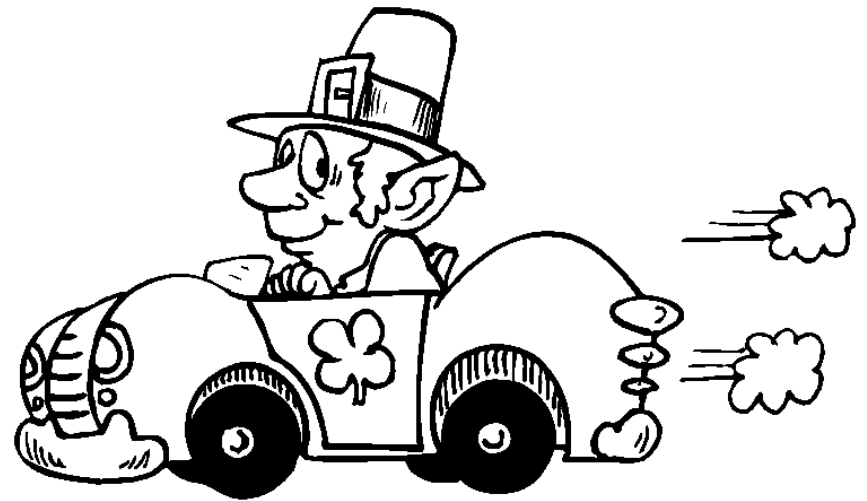

The little leprechauns wear green
But they are hardly ever seen.

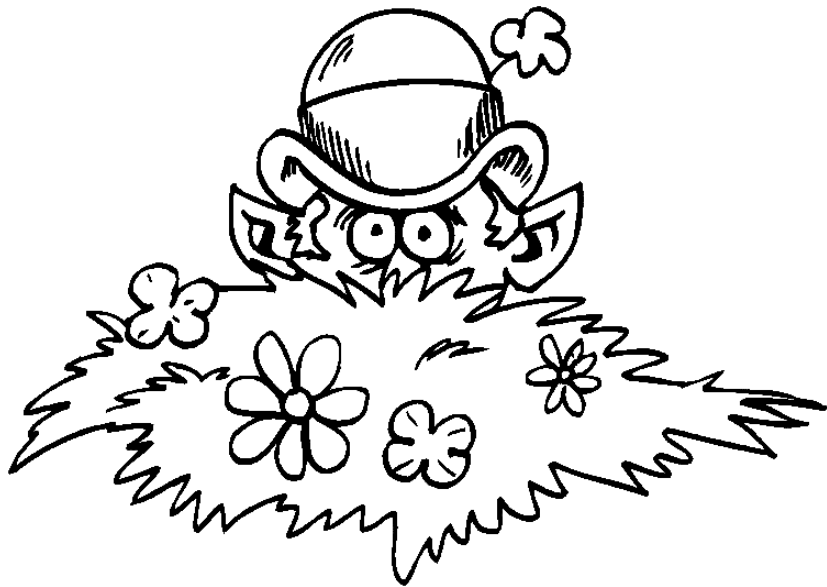

Leprechauns are tricky, they say,
But maybe I'll see one on St. Patrick's Day!

If you can catch one, so I'm told,
He has to give you his pot of gold.

Lots of funny tricks they play,
But then they always zip away.

Can you see them as you pass,
Hiding in the tall green grass?

I saw one behind a mushroom,
But he jumped and ran away - zoom!